Be Part of Value Education: Workshops and seminars in colleges

Objectives of the Practice

- To promote the awareness among the students
- Seminars & workshops provide valuable information other than curriculum
- It enhances the technical abilities and knowledge among the students, and also builds the overall personality and skills of the students.
- To uphold the value education

The Context

- It is the platform for students and teachers to participate actively in the workshops and seminars
- It enhances the knowledge of students
These activities are working for the overall development of the teachers and the students

The Practice

We organise various seminars and workshops. During the year 2016 to 2021 we arranged 26 workshops/ seminars. Details of these are available in college website.

Evidence of Success

- These workshops and seminars provide valuable information to the students.
- large number of students participate in these seminars which help them in shaping their personality and academics

Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Limitations to this best practice is limited presence of students as conference room have limited capacity. We need more spacious conference rooms so that benefit is given to large number of students. College requested the management for this facility. Management is positive for this suggestion and will take necessary action in future

Notes

Students are benefitted from this activity. Interaction between resource person and students is done. It will help students' overall development
